

In Your Own Words

Re-enact the sketch in your own words, without reading from the text. Do it in short sections. These words will remind you:

I passport two passports name occupation	II spy brush salesman suspicious	III Anything to declare? bottle of whisky	IV case noise alarm-clock locked	V dynamite secret papers welcome to England

Writing

Filling in a Form

You have to write down the following information about a visitor to your country:

Name
Nationality
Date of birth
Date of arrival
Length of stay
Probable date of departure
Passport Number

Work in pairs, one student asking the questions and the other filling in the form.

What Do You Think?

Passports

Passports are a problem. They are easy to lose, and when they expire, you have to queue to get a new one. Often the photograph doesn't look like you. It would be better if we didn't have them. Do you agree?

The Dentist

SCENE
CHARACTERS

A dentist's waiting-room
Two patients: a man and a woman
A 'dentist'
The real dentist

The man and the woman are sitting in the waiting-room. The woman is calm, but the man is very nervous.

Um . . . is he good?
Pardon?
The dentist. Is he good?
I don't know.
