

Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form.

- 1 I'd sooner you ...did... (do) something with your time rather than sit around all day.
- 2 He didn't win a prize, but he looked as though he
- 3 If you hadn't seen the car in time, it (win) one.
- 4 Supposing I offered you the job, (hit) you.
- 5 It's about time you (you/take) it?
- 6 Suppose you (go) on a holiday.
- 7 I'd rather you (see) a mad dog, what would you do?
- 8 It would have been better if you (not/drive) so fast, Pat.
- 9 Sue went to France this year, but she says she would rather (tell) me the truth.
- 10 It's a shame you missed the party; I would rather you (go) to Spain.
- 11 John had better (be) there.
- 12 He says he'd rather (not/speak) to me like that again.
- 13 I'd rather you (cook) his own food than eat in restaurants.
- 14 Tim's mother would rather he (not/mention) this to anyone until next week.
- 15 The soup would have tasted better if you (work) closer to home than he does.
- 16 Greg says he would rather (not/put) so much pepper in it.
- 17 She would prefer to meet you personally rather than (not/leave) things as they are.
- 18 Sean prefers playing football to (talk) to you over the phone.
- 19 Would you rather (watch) it?
- 20 Sheila prefers (write) in ink or in pencil?
- 21 Would he prefer (get up) early in the morning rather than (oversleep).
- 22 I would rather (drive) to work tomorrow rather than cycle?
- 23 My father prefers to have a beard rather than (deal) with his rude secretary as I did.
- 24 Tom prefers (have) a shave every day.
- 25 Wouldn't you prefer to sit on this seat rather than (ski) to (skate).
- 26 I wish I (stand) for the whole journey?
- 27 It seemed as if he (be) as good as you at mathematics.
- 28 I wouldn't have given him all that money if you (not/understand) the question.
- 29 Crime will continue to rise unless more police (not/advise) me to.
- 30 If he (be/put) on the streets.
- 31 I wish Jim (play) better, he would have won the game.
- 32 If I (not/move) to London last year as I hardly see him now.
- 33 I wish I (be) in the post office 5 minutes earlier, I would have witnessed the robbery.
- 34 If I (invite) more people to my fancy dress party last week.
- 35 If you (not/be) afraid of heights, I would try parachuting.
- 36 We'd better (not/let) her make her own decisions, she will never learn.
- (take) some money for a taxi in case we miss the last bus home.