Presentation

In some situations, the is not normally used before certain nouns.

1. Names of meals

We do not normally use the with names of meals (breakfast, lunch, supper etc.)

What did you have for lunch?

We usually have supper at 8pm.

If there is an adjective before the name of the meal, we use a:

I had a very nice breakfast.

But we use the when we give extra information about a particular meal:

The breakfast that you made this morning was excellent.

2. School, hospital, church, prison, university

Fiona goes to school every day. This morning, Fiona's mother went to the school to see her daughter's teacher.

We do not use the before school when we are thinking of the idea or use of school (i.e. a place for learning). When we are thinking of a particular school (e.g. Fiona's school), we use the. We can also say:

Fiona's daughter is at school. (= as a pupil)

Fiona's mother is at the school. (= as a visitor)

We talk about hospital, church, prison and university in the same way:

Margaret is very ill. She is in hospital right now. (as a patient) Her husband is going to the hospital to visit her. (as a visitor in a particular hospital)

Marcin goes to church every Sunday. (for a religious service) Last week, there was a small fire at the church. (the building)

3. Noun + number

We do not use the before a noun + number:

Turn to page 24. Anne is staying in Room 23. The next train leaves from Platform 3.

4. Other expressions

We do not use the in the following expressions:

I feel very tired now. I'm going to bed. (to sleep)

BUT: I found my grammar book under the bed. (a particular piece of furniture)

I'm going home now.

Tom is not at home at the moment.

What time do you start work? (your job)

BUT: The work you did for me was excellent. (a particular piece of work)

Dialogue

- After supper, I'm going home. I must go to bed.
- Why so early?
- Well, I have to get up for work tomorrow morning. And after that, I'm going to visit my grandmother. She is in hospital.
